

Peter VanSickle

Peter has a longstanding connection to the 1,000 Islands.

His family purchased “La Vignette” in Wanderer’s Channel in 1991 and have been summer residents for over thirty years. La Vignette was designed and build by Frank Lent a renowned architect in Gananoque at the turn of the century and the architect of Gananoque’s Bell Tower.

After graduating from Queens University in Commerce he lived in Saudi Arabia trading in Building materials. Upon return to Canada, he had a successful career in Real Estate Development with firms including, Ivanhoe Cambridge, Hudon’s Bay Company and Bank of Montreal.

He holds an MBA from Dalhousie University and is a Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Bankers

More recently Peter moved from Oakville to the South Ward in Gananoque with his wife Lee in order to take advantage of all that the region provides. His is active in the community with volunteering at the Gananoque Food Bank, being on the Board of Trustees of Half Moon Bay and participating in various programs in the area